User Manual

General overview of Niryo's Vision Set

Introduction

Niryo's Vision Set has been developed to allow Ned2 to use its camera to deal with its environment. This module can be used with:

- Blockly with build-in function to use vision.
- Python with buil-in function or custom programs using the camera.

Kit Overview

Part	Quantity	Description
USB Cable	x1	PH-4 to USB 1m, connects the camera to Ned
Scratch	x2	Allows to attach the cable to the robotic arm
Calibration tip	x1	End effector used for workspace calibration
Squared Container	x3	Handable 3D squares that can be used as containers for the circles
Circles	x3	Handable 3D circles that can be placed in the squared containers
Workspace board	x1	A repositionable printed workspace board
Workspace support	x1	Allows to set the workspace board
Mechanical connector	x1	Which is composed of an aluminum base for Nedand links to connect the workspace support as well as the Conv

Made with Docsie.io